

I disagree with allowing cross-ownership - keep the ban in place. Media companies should be prohibited from owning both the television station and the newspaper in the same geographical area. Freedom of the press is key to our democracy. We must allow and encourage the media to report a diversity of views. The press will not be free to do so if it is controlled by just a few very large companies.

Nancy Galloway